The power to take control.

As the costs involved in supplying energy continue to change, it's increasingly helpful to have more control over the energy your business uses. The State Government has recently announced changes to regulated electricity retail tariffs from 1 July 2018. Now's the perfect time to review your business's energy usage as even modest changes can make a big difference.

Take control with My Account.

My Account is the easiest way to get more control and better information.

There are features that allow you to review billing history and access various payment options. Even more useful is being able to see when your business is using more or less energy, and to track usage at multiple premises. This information is at your fingertips, so you can quickly make informed decisions.

Part of staying on track to our intelligent energy future is using modern tools like My Account.

Visit synergy.net.au/myaccount to register now.
